June Smith

June Smith began her dance training in the Detroit area and was fortunate to work with many instructors, including her mother, in many different styles of ballet. She was a soloist with the Downriver Civic Ballet and the Detroit City Ballet. As an original member of the Plymouth-Canton Ballet Company she performed many roles in numerous ballets. June is now honored to hold the position of Artistic Director of the Plymouth-Canton Ballet Company. The Cecchetti Method of Ballet has been a great influence in her career of dancing and teaching. She holds the Teachers Diploma Certificate and travels around the country as an Examiner and Liaison Officer. Additionally, she is the National Registrar and a member of the Executive Board of the Cecchetti Council of America. June is very proud to continually watch new accomplishments of her children and grandchildren following in the family love of dance.
